INNOVATE FASTER.

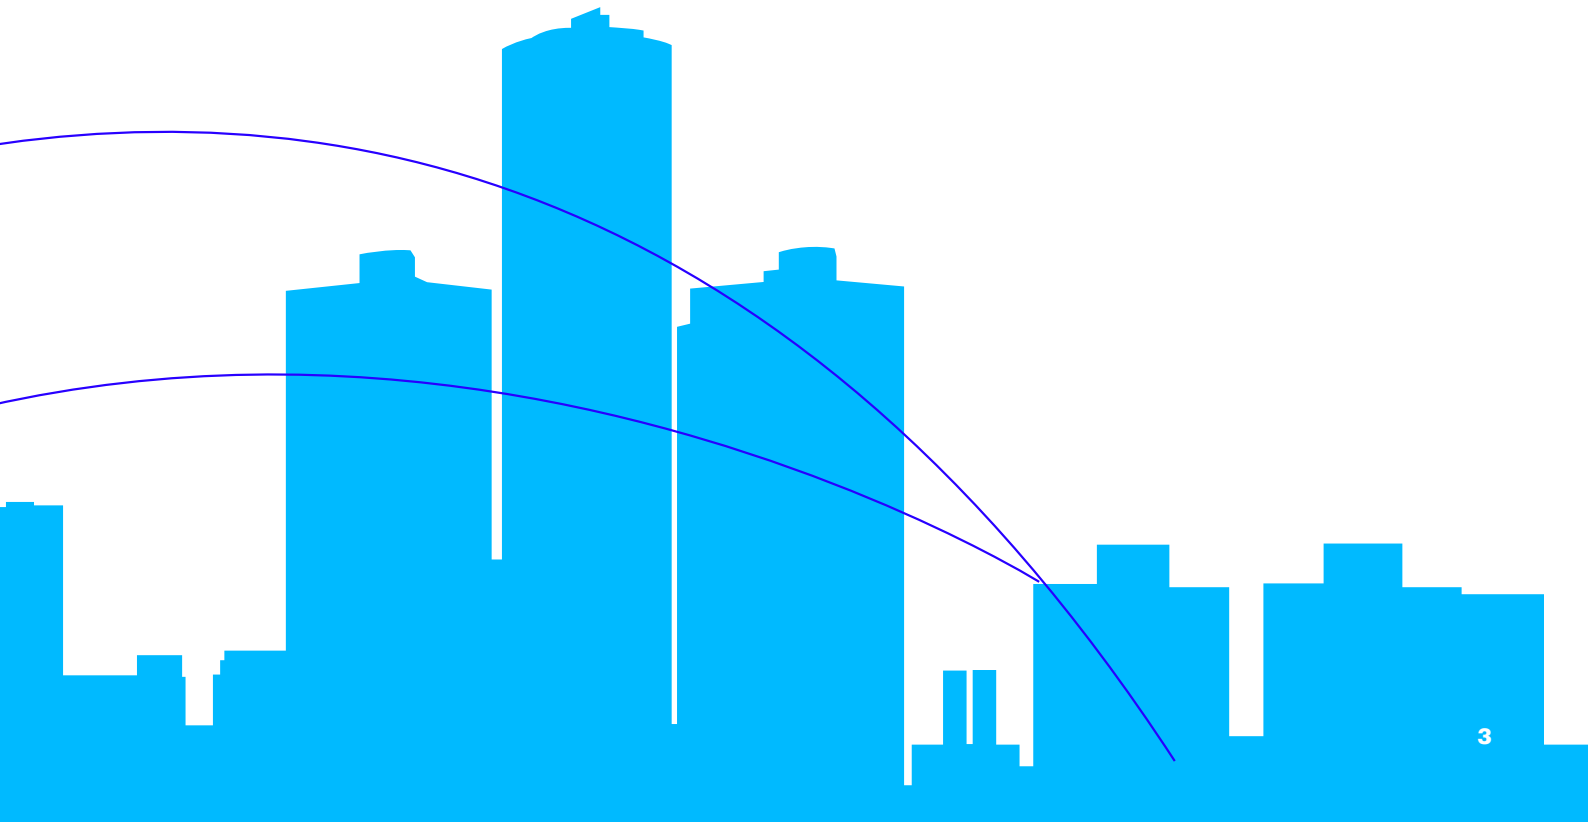

Located in the manufacturing core of America, the Detroit Industry X.0 Innovation Center allows you to tackle your toughest, most complex industry challenges and keep pace with rapid change.

You'll work alongside our Industry X.0 specialists, industry partners and research experts to experience and co-create smart, scalable Industry X.0 solutions to digitally reinvent your business.

Immerse yourself in the next generation of smart products and services, customer experiences, and operations.

Join us in Detroit and develop your next wave of connected digital solutions and experiences to unlock value and drive growth.

EXPERIENCE THE POSSIBILITIES.

It's one thing to talk innovation. It's another to live it. Get out of your day-to-day comfort zone and experience first-hand cutting-edge innovation that can transform your business. Be inspired by and engage with new technologies, design thinking workshops, and hands-on Industry X.0 demos to prepare your business to flex fast and keep pace with change—all in a welcoming and collaborative workspace that fosters creativity by design.

Forget sitting passively in a conference room or being talked at for hours in a sterile environment. The Center is about true engagement. Dig into memorable experiences that are customized to your interests and industry.

At the Center, You'll Experience:

INDUSTRY X.0 DEMOS

Bring new technologies to life to see the 'art of the possible' with practical use cases and real-world scenarios covering product development, engineering, manufacturing, and customer experience. See for yourself how to apply digital technologies and leading methods to solve pressing problems, and create new value for your business and customers.

DESIGN THINKING WORKSHOPS

Thinking outside the box is not just a phrase. We provide a collaborative, creative environment that enables you to discover new ideas and solve specific questions while keeping the ultimate goal in mind: accelerating your digital journey. By putting people at the center, our Design Thinking workshops allow participants to develop innovative ideas for new products, services and business models that will be relevant tomorrow, today.

Experience first-hand cutting-edge innovation that can transform your business.
